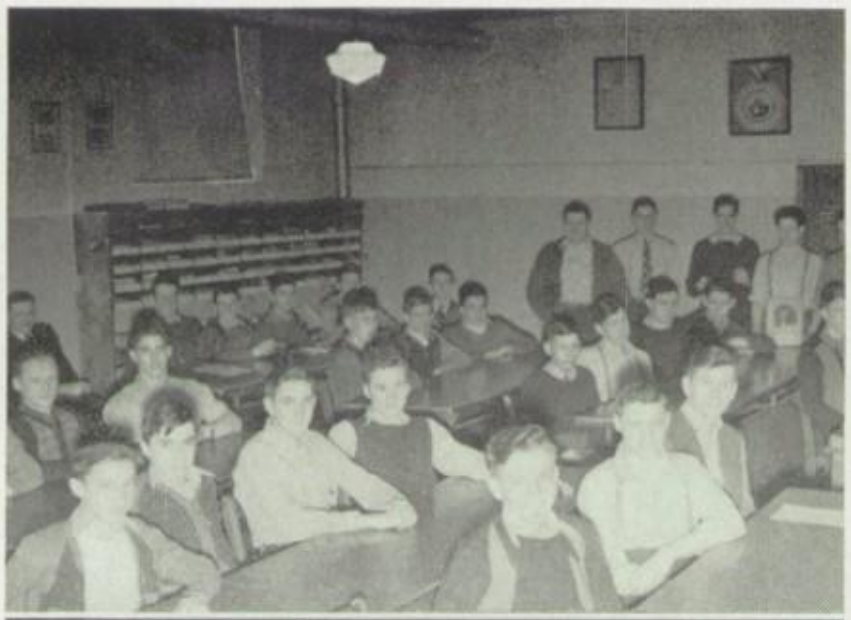
Dedication

To you, Miss Bruerd, the class of 1941 wishes to dedicate this volume of Memory's Trail because of your thoughtful, efficient service in the cafeteria. Your cheerful smile and kindness will always be remembered by us and may you long be associated with Hilliards High School.

Get the facts and you'll get a Ford. See FISHINGER & SON, Hilliards, Ohio.



Flight Preparations

These pictures show the ground work that must be undertaken before we attempt to fly. This first training is made as interesting as possible by the teachers which results in well prepared students who embark on their solo flights.

Flight Control

These five men are responsible for the general operation of our school. Their job is to hire teachers, work out the financial budget, and see that the entire school personnel is receiving a square deal.

"FAIRMONT'S ICE CREAM is famous for its fine Quality".

Navigator

Mr. Hartsook is the man who maps our course for the year, keeps an eye out for bad weather and supervises our first flights.

Pilot

Mr. Strasbaugh's task is guiding us through four years of high school, steering us clear of air pockets and storms and seeing that as seniors we make a perfect 3-point landing.

Future Farmers of America

This club is composed of boys who intend to farm and farm well. To prepare for this they are studying and experimenting with different methods of agriculture.

The social activities of the club are mainly Father-Son Banquets and F.F.A., F.H.A. Banquets.

Future Homemakers of America

The members of this club are working toward the goal of becoming better cooks and homemakers than even their mothers. They are one of the most popular of the social groups of the school.

The club cooperates in preparing F.F.A. and F.H.A. Banquets, Junior-Senior Banquets and Honor Society Banquets.

COMPLIMENTS OF A FRIEND

Hi-Y Club

The Hi-Y is a service club sponsored by the Y.M.C.A.

This year the members were responsible for dances after the basketball games, Hallowe'en Party, and together with the Girl Reserves the Christmas Carol Singing, White Gift Offering and the Easter Service. Mr. Patterson is the club advisor.

Girl Reserves

The Girl Reserves purpose is "To find and give the best."

The club sponsors the Valentine Party, Mother-Daughter Banquet and with the Hi-Y the White Gift Offering, Christmas Carol Singing and Easter Service.

Band

The band gives an opportunity to the more inexperienced students who are interested in music. This year at the football games their uniforms and marching formations aroused a great deal of enthusiasm.

Dance Orchestra

The dance orchestra was organized to provide an orchestra for school dances and banquets. It has become very popular and is in constant demand by the students for all social affairs.

Man on beach—I'm trying to find out which one of you fellows saved my mother-in-law's life.

Lifeguards — Control yourself, pal. We're four to your one.

* * *

"Is your wife a bridge fiend?"

"Yes, only a fiend could kick as hard as she does."

* * *

"Such an extraordinary profile! I wish you'd pose for me!"

"Oh, are you a portrait painter?"

"No, I make silhouettes for Hallowe'en decorations."

* * *

AW SHOOT!

"I'm going to consult a criminal lawyer before I get rid of that mean wife of mine."

"Listen, Fella! A criminal lawyer doesn't handle divorces."

"Who said anything about divorce?"

TICK-TOCK

"So the hold-up man wouldn't take grandpop's old-fashioned watch?"

"Yes, he said he didn't want to be arrested for violating the anti-noise ordinance."

* * *

GOOD NEWS

Cop—Hey, Buddy, come out of that water. You can't swim in there.

Man—I know I can't. Help, Help, Help!

* * *

SOBERING

Stage-Manager—I'm going to make you go on the stage wearing less than any chorine ever did before!

Chorine—Ha Ha! How can I wear any less than I do now?

Stage Manager—Take that grin off your face.

Girls' Sports

The girls' physical education classes offered a fine variety of activities which included speedball, basketball, volleyball, softball, shuffleboard, deck tennis, relays, folk and social dancing, table tennis, group games, and others. In addition to the regular classes Miss Swamberg organized the Girls' Athletic Association which provided recreational activities for every girl.

JUST A SECOND

He—My face is my fortune.
She—Go on! It will stop a clock.
He—Well, I'm a clock repairman.

* * *

WRONG GUY

Beauty—I'm bothered with a little wart that I'd like to have removed.

Receptionist—The divorce lawyer is two doors to the left. This is the doctor's office.

* * *

Soprano—I sang in a horrid night club once—and I never heard the last of it.

Man-About-Town—Neither did I. I walked out in the middle.

* * *

Florist—Well, so you want to say it with flowers. Say, about two dozen.

Customer—No, make it six roses. I don't want to say too much.

GOTCHA

Wife—I'm going to ask you a question. Have you any idea why I hate our apartment?

Hubby—You have me there.

Wife—That's the idea.

* * *

AC OR DC

There's a lot of electricity in my hair.

Oh, is that why you buy hats that look like lamp shades.

* * *

"I'm eating the first apple off the tree."

"You're an early bird."

"Yes, I got the worm!"

* * *

"My heart is unemployed."

"Don't be silly. You'd be dead if it didn't work."

Class Prophecy 1941

The following is an excerpt from the column of the celebrated Waldo Winchel for May, 1949:

"Notes of a newsboy: Your columnist while wintering at the resort of Madame Miriam Davis discovered several second-honeymooners who may be of interest to you, Betty Butin, Elsie Haueisen, Doris Holcomb, Anita Leppert and Betty Rings, all quite happily married.

"The scoop of the month and an extra bonus for Waldo is the discovery of the marriage of Willie Edwards, popular poultry farmer and man-about-town, to a New York debutante.

"I just hired a complete new office force and the whole staff is very well known in the social circles of this man's town. Frances Arndt is my new, very efficient comptometer operator, Ruth Chadwick and Doris Porschett are the stenographers, Phyllis Shier is my private secretary and Dorcas Tope is the secretary of the syndicate's new analyst.

"Your friend Waldo visited an army camp the other day and was quite overcome by the three hostesses from our old home town. Thev are Betty and Harriet Van Schoyck and Marjorie Rarey who really do those uniforms justice. Among the boys of the air corps who seemed to be completely grounded I noticed Dick Clellan, Charles Lewis, Frank Postle, Edwin Wright, Bill Hart and Orval Longerbone.

"While I was there, Bob Chawner and Dick McFarland strolled nonchalantly in after having tested two huge army bombers in some very dangerous maneuvers.

"By all means visit the Club Rinaldo to see Monroe Curnutte, Hilliard's answer to Eddie Duchin, who with his orchestra is packing them in nightly. His vocalists, Madelyn Weaver and Elbert Russell, are really the best old Waldo has heard in a long time.

"And while we're on this subject don't forget to take in the act at the Yacht Club, which features Mary Ann Douglas and Beulah Blau, one of the best teams on roller skates I've seen yet.

Your reporter attended the National Open in Miami, Florida, during his vacation and found Albert Scarpitti and Nick Cordetti battling it out for the championship.

The Metropolitan Company will open with Wilma Hufford starring in "Die Valkerie". Among the distinguished people who will attend are Sylvia Kitchen, Dean of Music at Vassar, Ruth Distlehorst, who has trained many of the stars in "Die Valkerie" and Earl Rader, Dean of Music at Harvard University.

"A new store opened on Fifth Avenue the other day. The owners are Frances Lewis and Jean Woda, who can turn out gowns that are tops in glamour. Added attractions are the three models who get along very well with glamour, Betty Kidwell, a red-head, and Anna-Jean Von Driska and Eleanor Riebel, who are both very striking brunettes.

"Take a little advice from me and, if you ever feel low, take a rest at the Municipal Hospital. The nurses there are enough to make anybody well. Just walking through the halls I saw Esther Van Houten, Cora Pence, Ada Purdum, Esther Ann Burnside, Joan Matthews and Edith Cantrell. I saw two airline hostesses who were visiting old acquaintances among the nurses and from now on I do all my traveling by plane. Joan Giehl and Stella Hammonds really look cute in those uniforms and caps.

"A place that is becoming a "must see" on the sight seeing tours through our town is the Federlin Observatory. As you know the money to build this beautiful building was given to George Federlin by Frank Gease, noted multi-millionaire, who just got back from Africa with a catch that rivals Frank Buck's.

"Have any of you taken a ride in the country recently? If so you must have passed the Co-op Farms just south of town. They are really something to see. The owners are Eugene Ball, Donald Rice, John Shier, Warren Tinapple, Fred Weldon, and Bob Weber.

"The man who manages the selling side of these farms is Nelson Russell, a very efficient businessman.

"On your dial: Waldo has found two new programs that will interest you. At eight o'clock listen to the big time dance program which features Ruby Pepon, her guitar and her cowboy ballads. At nine in the morning catch the "History of the World," a drama written and directed by Janice White, noted teacher of World History.

"Television which has recently been perfected will help you to enjoy these programs and many more. For television we owe a lot to Charles Meteer, prominent engineer, and his assistants, Eugene Kent and Albert De Santo.

"Speaking of radio programs give your dial a whirl tonight at nine to WLW. Jesse McDowell will open President Roosevelt's campaign for a fifth term with a speech entitled "Why We Must Fear A Dictator" or "Four Good Terms Deserve." McDowell, as you know, has been F. D. R.'s campaign manager for the last two terms.

"The Roller Derby has really taken a hold on this fair city. The winning teams for this season have all been managed by Vivian Wilkinson, who has made quite a name for herself in the skating world by her ability to pick stars.

"Methinks that Waldo has well earned his pay for this month so au revoir, auf Wiedersehen, and high-ho.

Class Will 1941

We, the Senior Class of Hilliards High School, Franklin County, State of Ohio, do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament and declare all former wills to be annulled.

We will to the Juniors the reputation of being the quietest and best-mannered class in years.

To the Sophomores we leave our class spirit of which we are very proud.

To the Freshmen we bequeath our poise and complete assurance in the face of all teachers.

To the Eighth Grade with four years ahead we will our memories which will be with us for a long time.

And as you would expect Frances Arndt leaves her friendship with Miss Beyer to the Freshmen Latin Class.

To Karl Kaufman goes Eugene Ball's ability to bluff it through.

Beulah Blau and Mary Ann Douglas will their popularity at the skating rink to Richard Anderson.

Esther Ann Burnside's long fingernails are a gift to Jean Fenner.

Betty Butin just refuses to give up her romance to anyone. Mighty selfish we say.

To Charles Tarbox goes Edith Cantrell's very quiet disposition.

Ruth Chadwick leaves her ability to get through high school in three years to Eddie Loving.

And Wayne Hufford gets Nick Cordetti's gift of telling the referee what he thinks of him.

Bobby Walker is fortunate to receive Dick Clellan's ability to slap out rhythm on the bass fiddle.

Monroe Curnutte offers his wavy hair to "Burhead" Gease.

Miriam Davis gives her quiet ways to Marilou Walter.

Albert De Santo is glad to will his understanding of English 12 literature to Joe Castorano.

And for tradition's sake Ruth Distlehorst wills her Glockenspeil to her sister, Mariwyn.

William Edwards offers his serious attitude toward life to Lowell Noxon.

To Bill Converse is given, George Federlin's knack of going to sleep in all classes.

Carl Fladt leaves his green suit to Bill Harp.

Frank Gease wants to rid himself of his "ability" to drop passes in crucial moments of football games and is willing to give it to Carl Walker.

To any worrying soul goes Joan Giehl's position as editor-in-chief of the annual.

Our cheerleaders Stella Hammonds, Marjorie Rarey, and Betty Van Schoyk will good luck to the Dellinger twins.

Bill Hart leaves his smile to Carl Headlee.

Elsie Hauiesen gives her knack of finding a "one and only" to Joan Sifrit.

To Annabelle Bowman goes Doris Holcomb's position on the Beacon Staff along with all its worries.

Wilma Hufford bequeaths her musical ability to Betty Dever.

And Eugene Kent offers his shyness to Dickson Van Schoik who will benefit greatly by it.

Betty Kidwell relinquishes her title as queen of Hilliards to any red-head who will carry on the tradition.

To Hilda Lahrmer goes Sylvia Kitchen's skill in refereeing basketball games.

Anita Leppert gives up her position as Mr. Love's secretary to Mary Salzgaber.

Charles Lewis's way with the Freshmen girls goes to Dick Ayle.

Frances Lewis wills her ability to dash madly with a handful of papers and still get nothing done to Olive Oberst.

Pete Moro fortunately receives Orval Longerbone's basketball talent.

Joan Matthews wills her laugh to Virginia Swepston.

Jesse McDowell leaves his office-for-a-day to anyone who can make a campaign speech that will win as many votes.

Dick McFarland's position as football manager goes to Rodney Powell.

Charles Meteer offers to Bill Lewis his love for mathematics.

And Ruby Pepon says, quote, I will to my sister the ability to keep the ball rolling without getting behind it, unquote.

Herberta Hackworth receives all of Cora Pence's worries as office girl.

Doris Porschet wills her deep thoughts to Dorothy Mae Burnside.

Frank Postle wills his "what makes the difference" attitude to Fred Kautz.

To Caroline Miller goes Ada Purdum's romantic outlook on life.

Earl Rader wills his extensive knowledge of French to Charles Loving.

Donald Rice bequeaths his "pompadour" to Lloyd Murray.

Betty Rings leaves her successful acting career to Bonna Latham.

Violet Shrum is the lucky girl who gets Eleanore Riebel's capability in keeping her library quiet.

Elbert Russell gives his title of Hilliard's "Casanova" to Dale Dutcher.

To "Red" McCall goes Nelson Russell's position as business manager of the BEACON.

Albert Scarpitti wills to Adam Lombardi his place as low score man in all golf games.

Phyllis Shier wills her knack of always keeping her moccasins spotless to all girls who wear white shoes.

David Patch is the heir to John Shier's BASSO PROFUNDO.

Warren Tinapple wills his "Li'l Abner" attitude toward women to David Woehrle.

Kate Griffith gets Dorcas Tope's height and we know she'll make good use of it.

Esther Van Houten wills her quiet but determined disposition in all situations to Alice Gemeinhardt.

Ruth McGarvey inherits Harriet Van Schoyck's jitterbugging dexterity.

Fred Weldon donates his swagger to the oncoming Freshmen boys.

Madelyn Weaver gives her love for physical education and intramural sports to Mary Summers.

Janice White wills her love for books to Joan Tinapple.

Vivian Wilkinson wills her Friday night "escapades" to the oncoming Seniors and we hope they'll have as much fun as "Janie".

Jean Woda turns over her struggle to get the over-due books back to the library to Ruth Harrow.

Edwin Wright wills his lanky stature to Bill Tope, who we know will appreciate it.

And Bob Chawner bequeaths his knack of always being able to relax and get a little rest no matter how much work he's got to do to Walter Richardson.

Sworn to before the proper witnesses this 3rd day of April, 1941.

(Signed) Frances Lewis,
Bob Chawner.

MODERN IMPROVEMENTS

A traveling salesman, having missed a bus, found himself with several hours to spend in Brushville. He approached a native.

"Got a picture show here?"

"No."

"A poolroom, or a library?"

"No."

"Well, how on earth do you amuse yourselves?"

"We go down to the grocery store in the evenings and watch the bacon slicer work."

YI-PI

Navy Recruiting Officer: "You can follow your regular trade in the Navy."

Recruit: "But I used to be a cowboy."

N. R. O.: "Well, you can be a cook and ride the range in the galley."

KISS AGAIN

"It's nice to kiss in a shady parking place, but the boyfriend doesn't stop there."

"You mean . . . . ?"

"Yes, he keeps right on driving."

HE'D SWIM AN HOUR

Old Farmer Tightmoney wasn't exactly stingy but mighty economical. One day he fell into the cistern. The water was over his head and cold but he could swim. His wife, attracted by his cries, yelled excitedly down to him: "I'll ring the dinner bell so the boys will come home and pull you out."

"What time is it?" the farmer called up.

" 'Bout 11 o'clock."

"No, dang it, let 'em work on till dinner time. I'll just swim around till they come."

AN OLD MAID'S FANCY

Old Maid: "The waiter asked me how I'd like my rice."

Second O. M.: "And what did you say, dearie?"

"I said I'd like it thrown at me."

WHAT A FIGHT

"I always fight the enemy with his own weapons."

"Really? How do you go about stinging a wasp?"
